

SCB DEVELOPMENTAL BIOLOGY JOINT RETREAT 2015

We are happy to announce the next SCB Developmental Biology Joint Retreat 2015. We intend to continue this series of Joint Retreats funded by the Societat Catalana de Biologia (SCB) to bring together all groups working on developmental biology in Catalan Universities and Research Institutions. We are convinced that this meeting is necessary to promote scientific discussions and social interactions to strength our small community in order to favor exchanges of results, ideas, hypothesis and methodologies and promote possible collaborations beyond this retreat.

Organization and structure

The seminars will take place at Eden Roc Hotel, in Sant Feliu de Guixols, Girona on the 19th and 20th of March, 2015.

We are pleased to inform that Drs. Filippo del Bene and Christen Mirth will be our keynote invited speakers. The final program will be organized according to the number of participants and the subject of scientific communications. The seminars will be held in English.

We invite PhD students and postdocs to submit original abstracts for oral or poster presentation. PhD students are particularly encouraged to give a talk since it is a great opportunity to show their data and projects in a relaxed and friendly environment. We pretend to have as many short talks as possible.
